

Dr. Iva Lončarić Kelečić is an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Health Sciences, Libertas International University, and Physiotherapy Team Lead at the University Clinical Hospital Centre Zagreb. She is a member of the European Region World Physiotherapy Working Group for Professional Practice (2024–2026) and contributes to the advancement of physiotherapy at both national and international levels. She publishes regularly in journals indexed in relevant citation databases and serves as an editor, reviewer, and member of scientific and professional committees. Her research focuses on musculoskeletal disorders, pain science, and quality assurance and improvement in physiotherapy. Assist. Prof. Dr. Lončarić Kelečić is also actively involved in expert bodies related to physiotherapy profession regulation and regularly presents at national and international congresses.

